From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY AND NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY!

BEYOND SUNDAY: MAJOR PHASE

The final (and major) phase of the vast, diocesan-wide collection to assist our Catholic schools, “Beyond Sunday”, kicks off next weekend. Plenty will be said about it then, and I suspect that all of you already pretty much know what’s coming, so I’ll just let this brief heads-up suffice until then.

THE FESTIVAL OF THE HEAVENLY JERUSALEM

This coming Tuesday, Nov. 1, is the great feast of All Saints, the day on which we celebrate the fact that the eternal life that Jesus promised to all His faithful is now being enjoyed by those who have kept the faith. Although that already takes place at every Mass where the feast of a canonized saint is observed, what makes this different is that on All Saints’ Day we celebrate the feast of the un-canonized saints, too. These are holy people whom we personally knew. We gather on this holy day to honor them and ask their prayers for us. Masses on the holy day will be on Monday, Oct. 31 (Hallowe’en) at 7:00PM and on Tuesday, Nov. 1 at 6:30 & 8:00AM.

ALL SOULS’ DAY

Consistent with the month of November’s being the month of the Holy Souls, the day after All Saints’ Day is, fittingly, All Souls Day. On this day we also remember our beloved dead, but this time it’s to pray for them (rather than asking them to pray for us), because of their being in Purgatory. Although it’s not a holy day of obligation, it’s a wonderful thing to attend Mass on that day, if for no other reason than that there are significant indulgences attached to doing that. Consequently, there will be two Masses that day, at 6:30 & 8:00AM. P.S.: It’s also a fitting day to visit the graves of your beloved dead.)

CATECHISM CLASS

Normally, the catechism Class is scheduled for the first and third Tuesdays of each month, but of late life has not been cooperating with my schedule. Consequently, we will not convene on All Saints’ Day (Nov. 1, this Tuesday) but we will get together the following Tuesday (Nov. 8) and on the regular day (surprise!), Nov. 15. Usual time, usual place, all invited.

150 CLUB

It’s still not too late to join. Just stop by the office for a form (or you could even just write us a check and put it in an envelope without the form; just make sure that either the envelope, the check, or both are marked “150 club”) and put it in the collection basket. It’s $150 for one person and $200 for a couple. Come be one of the One-Fifty!

ADVENT VESPERS

Following through on the tradition that was started last year (and overwhelmingly responded to by our good parishioners!), we will once again celebrate the Church’s solemn evening prayer, “Vespers” on the four Sundays of Advent, Nov. 27 and Dec. 4, 11 & 18. It’s a beautiful and traditional way (probably beautiful because it is traditional) to keep Advent as a season discrete from Christmas, celebrating and savoring its particular customs. More information will be forthcoming as we draw nearer.

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

This being the month of the Holy Souls, this quiz will be on that feast and on our Catholic customs relating to death and funerals:

CONTINUED ➡

Features:

CONTINUED

1. Where is the doctrine of Purgatory found in the Bible?
2. What does the word "purgatory" mean?
3. Is the word "purgatory" found in the Bible?
4. Who was the first to promote/celebrate the feast of All Souls?
5. How is a Catholic customarily attired for burial?
6. How is the casket traditionally oriented at the funeral Mass?
7. Is cremation for Catholics permitted?
8. If a body is cremated, what is to be the final disposition of the "cremains"?
9. What is the "month's mind"?
10. What is the cloth that is placed on the coffin at a funeral Mass and what does it signify?

ANSWERS: 1. It's not specifically mentioned in Scripture at all (nor does it need to be in order to be authentic doctrine), but there are references, e.g., 2 Maccabees 12:36 & 32, and Matthew 12:32f (where Jesus speaks of sins being forgiven in the "age to come") 2. "A place of cleansing" 3. No (but neither is "trinity" or "sacrament") 4. St. Odilo (a.k.a., "Odo"), abbot of Cluny in the early 11th c. (his likeness is prominently displayed in our cathedral in the Arch of the Last Judgement) 5. Priests wear their vestments, religious wear their habits, lay people wear appropriate garb, all hold a rosary or crucifix 6. With the feet facing east (which is also the traditional disposition for burial) 7. The practice is permitted when necessary (e.g., during plague for control of the contagion), tolerated for "sanitary, economic, or social considerations", and forbidden when done in blatant disregard for Catholic teaching and sensitivity 8. According to our Catholic practice and belief, the body was a temple of the Holy Spirit destined for resurrection on the Last day, and so whatever is left behind must be buried (the exception being the first-class relics of saints that are displayed for veneration) 9. A special Mass offered for the decedent on (or about) the 30th day after his death 10. Called the "pall", it recalls the white garment worn by the decedent at his Baptism (which, now that's he's passed on, is the only event of his life that really matters)

QUOTES OF THE WEEK (ON PURGATORY)

"Purgatory fire will be more intolerable than all the torments that can be felt or conceived in this life." - St. Bede the Venerable

"'Rocky' represents the optimistic side of life, and 'Rambo' represents Purgatory." - Sylvester Stallone

"Marriage is neither heaven nor hell; it is simply Purgatory." - President Abraham Lincoln

From The Desk of:

Mrs. Mary Ann Kauffman, Principal

Our National Junior Honor Society sponsored "Red Ribbon Week" this week. The students signed pledge cards promising they would stay drug free. These pledge cards are lining our hallways with red ribbons!! On Tuesday, we dressed in red, white and blue to remember to stand for a "Drug free Land."

We were visited by the Black Jack Fire Department. They brought their fire truck and let the preschoolers and kindergartners see the fire truck. The firemen opened many of the compartments on the truck and explained what was there. They review with the students what number they should call for an emergency and what they should do if they caught on fire. It was a great review and the fire personnel were great!!

We will be off on Halloween -- this means that we had our Halloween parties early. The room parents did a sensational job supplying games, treats and a drink. The students had a great time.

Many, many thanks to the parishioners who stepped forward to help sell certificates. You will see familiar faces at the certificate table soon!! They have my prayers and gratitude!! They are rock stars!!!

We had Parent/Teacher conferences on Friday. This is very important as we are a partner with the parents aiding our students to be the best they can be!!

Keep the prayers coming for us as we keep saying them for all of you!

God is Good!

REMINDER....We will pray a Holy Hour for the Sanctification of Priests and for the increase in priestly vocations, every Monday and Thursday at 8:30 am in Church.
