From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY!

THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY...

...continues, and I encourage you to take full advantage of it. Plan on coming early to Mass this month and pray the rosary, whether alone or with others, in preparation for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY...

...is also Pro-Life Month, and so I ask you when you pray your rosary to pray for an end to abortion, that the eyes of our fellow countrymen will be opened to the horrors of the murder of the innocent unborn. This Friday we're showing the feature film Gosnell, the true story of Dr. Kermit Gosnell of Philadelphia who ran a stinking, contaminated death mill and was protected from the usual laws that demand that a medical facility be a clean and healthy place because he was performing abortions, and all the sane and rational laws that ensure safety for the patient and apply in every other case, get thrown out the window to protect not the patient, but the woman's "right" to abortion. When people finally are allowed to see what goes on in these death camps, like Abby Johnson, they open their eyes and respond appropriately. Speaking of Mrs. Johnson, she's the main speaker at the Pro-Life Convention at the St. Charles Convention Center today (Oct. 13). (As you know, she's the subject of the hit film, Unplanned, which tells the story of the diabolical, hideous, and racist organization, Planned Parenthood.)

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

Let's see how much you know about Catholic doctrine by taking this version of: "Does the Church actually teach that?" I'll list ten statements pertinent to religion and it's your task to identify whether or not each one is official Catholic Church doctrine or not:

1. Mary's Immaculate Conception means that she, like Jesus, did not have a human father.
2. Mary was always a virgin and never had any children other than Jesus.
3. Mary was a virgin in the strictest possible sense of the word, i.e., that when Jesus was born, He did not pass through her birth canal, but emerged miraculously from womb.
4. The Eucharist is merely a sign of Jesus and nothing more.
5. Just as Jesus had two natures (God and man), the Eucharist has two natures, too, namely, bread and Jesus' Body.
6. Every mother who raises her son to be a priest is assured a place in heaven.
7. Every word the pope says is infallibly true.
8. The pope can change Church teaching or make up new ones.
9. We earn our way into heaven by doing good works.
10. God loves some people more than others.

ANSWERS: 1. No, not having a human father is "virgin birth" and is a phenomenon wholly different from being immaculately conceived; "immaculate conception" means that she did not participate in original sin 2. Yes, the Church has always known this to be true; the "brothers" of Jesus mentioned in the Gospels were actually either cousins or stepbrothers from a previous marriage of the widower St. Joseph 3. Yes, which is why St. Thomas Aquinas, in the second verse of the Pange Lingua, refers to her as "an intact virgin" 4. No, while confirming that the Eucharist is, indeed, a sign, we have always taught that it is so much more; that, in fact, it is Christ's own Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity 5. No, this is the so-called theory of consubstantiation, put forward by Luther and others. It's clever, but the Church has always taught "transubstantiation", i.e., that the former nature of bread is eliminated and replaced by the nature of Jesus' Body & Blood 6. No, even though a lot of Catholic mothers believed that (mostly because a lot of the sisters who taught in Catholic school might have "suggested" that to them. Such women have to fight their way into God's Kingdom like the rest of us. 7. No, papal infallibility only obtains in matters of faith and morals, and, further, only when he speaks ex cathedra, i.e., solemnly proclaiming with the full authority that Christ gave St. Peter, that the teaching is part of the Deposit of the Faith 8. No, the pope can only teach what Jesus taught to the Apostles; he is only the mailman, delivering the words of Jesus, and not the editor, who changes the teaching, whether by adding to or deleting from; Jesus did not give Peter that much authority 9. No, this is the heresy of Pelagius, who has been condemned fifteen times by the Church for teaching this. While good works are necessary, for St. James says that they are the best indication that a man's faith is real, they do not put us into a state where God "owes us one" for the service we've done for Him; that's how the pagans viewed their false gods

10. Hmmm, that's an interesting proposition! It's not Catholic teaching, i.e., nobody is obliged to believe it, but this theory has been posited by some of the best and holiest minds of the Church to answer tough questions like, "Why did God give Mary special graces which He did not bestow on us?", the answer being: He loved her more than He loves us. In the end, since God's love is, like God Himself, infinite, it's foolish to argue which expression of infinite love is larger, since they're both infinitely big!

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

"Our own government has made abortion a legal right, while pretending to be 'neutral' about religion and morality. Deciding that some lives can be taken at will is anything but 'neutral'. It assumes that unborn children are nothing but biological matter. At bottom, it assumes the same thing about the whole human race." - Joseph Sobran

"There exists today the modern and morbid habit of always sacrificing the normal to the abnormal." - G. K. Chesterton, 1920

WORD OF THE WEEK

MUMPSIMUS: (n.) A traditional custom or notion that is adhered to, even after it has been shown to be unreasonable, as in: For several years after the gasoline engine replaced the horse as the means of propelling carriages forward, their manufacturers still installed a mumpsimus on each new model, namely, a bracket to hold a buggy whip.

Inspired by Gospel values, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is an international Catholic lay organization dedicated to providing person to person service to those in need, which we strive to do right here in our parish boundaries. You can help by making a financial gift, donating clothing in our collection box, shopping in our thrift stores or volunteering at one of the stores. We always welcome new members who would like to make home visits or be call screeners. We are grateful to anyone who helps us in this ministry.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

Second month in the development of the unborn baby. Your baby is growing very quickly. He is now 1 ¼ inches long and weighs 1/30 of an ounce. But if he were to keep growing all 9 months as fast as he grows during this second month, he would be 14 tons at birth! Luckily, the growth rate slows dramatically so that he will probably weigh somewhere between 7 and 8 pounds at birth. All internal organs, his heart, stomach, liver and kidneys, are present and beginning to work. Brain waves have been recorded at 40 days. Your baby's fingerprints are formed and will never change except for size. On the prayer card, it has a place to fill in the baby's name. This could be any baby in danger of being aborted. If you wish, you can give it a name.

MOVIE NIGHT AT S.A.M

Please join us Friday, October 18th, at 7:00 PM in the lunchroom for the showing of the movie Gosnell, the shocking, true story of Dr. Kermit Gosnell, a 30-year veteran abortionist and those who tried to cover up his crimes. This police and courtroom drama is based on actual information on Dr. Kermit Gosnell who for decades ran a Philadelphia inner-city abortion clinic. In 2010, Philadelphia Police Detectives, with DEA and FBI agents, raided the clinic for evidence of illegal prescription drug sales. They were shocked by the clinic's filthy conditions, and stash of fetal parts, and, interviewing clinic workers, they learn of illegal activities surrounding the administration of abortions. An assistant District Attorney agrees to prosecute for murdered babies. This movie is really worth seeing, to understand the evils surrounding the abortion industry.

Popcorn and soda will be provided—see you Friday night.
