From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY!

MARILYN MITAS (1928-2020), R.I.P.

I can't even begin to tell you how much I appreciate your overwhelming expressions of sympathy on the passing of my mother. When many people share sorrow, it lightens the burden for each one, and I have certainly drawn strength from your condolence. There will, eventually, be a Memorial Mass for my mom, and I greatly expect it to be celebrated here at St. Angela, but it will not be for several weeks (due to Covid travel complications). There will be plenty of notice given when we are finally able to get together and offer the Holy Sacrifice for this faithful woman who hardly went a day of her life without taking part in it.

THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY

Keep praying your rosary; the welfare of the whole world depends upon it! (That's no exaggeration.)

ELECTION NOVENA

Today is the first of nine days of prayer leading up to the national elections. On each of these days, you are invited to stay after Mass and pray with us prayers specially composed for the event. They will be prayed after every Mass up through All Souls' Day. Speaking of All Souls' Day, the night before the election I will lead a special holy hour, beginning with Mass at 7:00PM. God bless America! God save America!

ALL SAINTS'/SOULS' DAY

Monday, Nov. 2, is All Souls' Day. It is not a holy day of obligation, but is a day when the Catholic faithful, understanding our obligation to pray for the dead and how beneficial our prayers for them are, have attended Mass. Three Masses, therefore, will be offered on All Souls' Day: 6:30 & 8:00AM, and 7:00PM.

RCIA FOR CATHOLICS

Everyone who would like to take part in this is invited to an organizational meeting this Tuesday, Oct. 27, at 6:30PM in the parish meeting room (next to the offices). Let me know if you'd like to be involved, but can't make the meeting. It shouldn't last more than half an hour.

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

Daily Mass is a beautiful devotion, one in which many participate. We have a consistent 30-50 who come to Mass here each day, and, if you asked them why they do it, they would tell you that they couldn't do without it. Many people, contemplating their retirement years, consider making that great devotion a part of their lives when they "finally have the time". If you do join the ranks of those who communicate daily, you'd be joining the ranks of many prominent Catholics now and in the past. See how many of these daily Mass go-ers you can identify:

1. This man is the winningest coach in NFL history, with two Super Bowl victories, to boot!
2. This former king of France attended two Masses daily, serving as altar boy at the first.
3. This man turned soup cans into art and led the "pop art" movement in the 60's.
4. This Supreme Court justice returned to the Church at Antonin Scalia's son's first Mass.
5. This all-pro quarterback won the Heisman Trophy, two Super Bowls, and introduced the phrase "Hail Mary pass" into the football lexicon.
6. This acclaimed actor (best known for "Apocalypse Now") took his stage name from Bp. Fulton J. Sheen.
7. The Super Bowl trophy bears the name of this great coach and former seminarian.
8. The last non-Italian pope before St. John Paul, this man's papal coronation was delayed because he had the practice (uncommon at the time) of saying Mass every day.
9. This acclaimed actor portrayed Jesus in the "Passion of the Christ".

10. This former teen pop idol is an Oscar-nominated actor and has a chapel in his home.

ANSWERS: 1. Don Shula 2. St. Louis IX 3. Andy Warhol 4. Clarence Thomas 5. Roger Staubach 6. Martin Sheen 7. Vince Lombardi 8. Pope Hadrian VI 9. Jim Caviezel 10. Mark Wahlberg

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

(I must begin with another mea culpa. After leaving Joe Sobran's name completely off the quote a couple of weeks ago, when I finally corrected that and included his name, I identified him as a "communist", whereas I intended to write columnist" [although spellcheck really has to take the hit for this one!]. Joe was about the furthest thing there is from being a communist, and I hope he'll forgive me!)

"The number one domestic problem in America is the breakdown of the nuclear family. No fathers...no peace." - columnist Larry Elder

"Fallacies do not cease to be fallacies just because they become fashions." - The immortal G. K. Chesterton
