From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY!

RCIA

Our RCIA classes for 2020-21 will start this Monday in the Parish Meeting Room at 6:30PM. The sessions will last about an hour. Normally, they're intended for adults from other faiths (or who had no religion), for their instruction in, and ultimate reception into, the Catholic faith, but this year we have no converts, so it will be attended by a group of parishioners who are already Catholic, but who seek to know their faith better. We already have a few souls committed to the program, and you're certainly welcome to join us. It's fun and free of charge!

MASS AT PIPER'S CHAPEL (AGAIN!)

The Piper's have invited us out to their chapel in O'Fallon for Mass once again. The Mass is scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 2, at 5:00PM. Typically, we meet here at the parish at about 4:00 or so (those who know the way there can meet us there) and we car pool together). After Mass, we go to the Madison Café for a nice dinner after. Put the date on your calendars; I'll have a sign-up sheet in the lunchroom soon.

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

Catholic artists and architects have been using symbols or emblems in their works for many centuries to convey certain personal traits of Christians or aspects of our Catholic faith. I have listed ten of them below. Your task is to match each one up with its meaning in Catholic art:

1. Latent strength or potential greatness
2. Hypocrisy
3. Resurrection
4. Deceit, trickery
5. Virginity
6. The Eucharist
7. Human labor
8. St. John the Baptist
9. The Trinity
10. God's retribution

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

“(Modern culture) is what is left when you subtract Christianity from Christian culture – so it’s a barren, bloodless, desiccated, and uninspiring thing, sometimes called ‘secular humanism’. Modern culture recognizes nothing above man, so there is nothing worth dying for and sacrifice is absurd. It recognizes no God and denies the soul, the afterlife, and ultimate justice...In a secularized universe, nobility and honor have no meaning. Neither does chastity. Yet these are virtues recognized by most other cultures. The Greeks and Romans thought that honor and chastity were worth dying for.” – Joseph Sobran

“The conjunction of ruling and dreaming generates tyranny.” – Michael Oakeshott

DEVELOPMENT OF THE UNBORN BABY DURING THE THIRD MONTH

Your spiritually adopted baby is quite active. Even though the mother cannot feel her yet, your baby kicks and flips herself around her secure, watery world. Her eyes have closed so that the delicate eyeballs can finish developing. Her cartilage skeleton begins to change over to real bone. Your baby sucks her thumb, hiccups when she swallows the amniotic fluid, and can close her fingers around an object placed in her hand. Your baby’s face is very expressive—she will squint, frown and smile! Your baby is now 3 inches long and can hear outside noises. Her favorite sound is her mother’s voice!

The Giving Tree

Helping Those in Need

Our St. Vincent de Paul Society is very excited about this year's Giving Tree. There are many ways to aid our Neighbors in Need. Our Giving Tree is one way.

This year because of Covid-19, we are giving you a unique opportunity. We will have praying hands on the Giving Tree with a description of a Neighbor in Need. We are asking you to take one or more "Hands" off the tree and to pray for this Neighbor in Need during Advent. What better gift to give than prayers!

This takes no going out to shop, our Vincentians will not be making Home Visits delivering your generous gifts. Your great gift this year is one from your heart – Prayer!!
