From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT FEBRUARY IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY FAMILY!

NEW COMPUTERS

Apart from a couple of compatibility issues (i.e., adapting the new computer/internet system to the existing telephone and security systems and making them all work harmoniously together), the new computers are up and running. So far, we have collected just over $6,500 to pay for it, for which I thank you in the name of the parish for your generosity!

RECOMMENDED BOOK SECTION

I'd like to recommend some reading materials to you for your further Catholic enlightenment and understanding. These books have all been around for a while, but are still available at Catholic book stores (like the Daughters of St. Paul in Crestwood) or on Amazon. The first is "Triumph: The Power and Glory of the Catholic Church" by H. W. Crocker, III. In these days when we hear so much about the scandals of the Church (and, for the sake of her purification, that's probably a good thing), it's easy to forget that there's a reason why the Catholic Church is the longest-running institution in human history. That reason is, quite simply, that, being established by God Himself and constantly fortified by His divine Spirit, she has accomplished great marvels of justice, charity, and goodness all throughout the last 2,000 years. Just look here at our own Archdiocese; other than Uncle Sam (whose capacity to reach into your pocket and extract whatever he wishes is endless), no other organization comes close to us in terms of establishing venues of public service. I'm talking about schools, hospitals, clinics, shelters, welfare for the poor, etc. – the list is endless. (And that doesn't take into account the fact that Catholics staff most of the institutions of public welfare operated by the government in numbers that are vastly disproportionate to our share of the total population.) Crocker tells the story of the successes of the Church wonderfully, and I'm glad somebody finally had the gumption to do so. RECOMMENDED!

At the same time, I also recommend the history of our Archdiocese written by our own Msgr. Michael Witt. It's called, "SAINT LOUIS: The Story of Catholic Evangelization of America's Heartland". I know that the first two volumes are in print, and that the third is on the way (and may, in fact, be already available). RECOMMENDED!

Last, I want to again promote a book I've mentioned and quoted numerous times since I've been here at St. Angela's, Robert Royal's classic: "The Catholic Martyrs of the 20th Century". RECOMMENDED! (With the weather being what it is, we might get soaked in for long periods this winter; make the most of it with some good books!)

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

It is said that good things come in threes. It is also said that tragic events happen in threes as well (which, if true, means that if you encounter four consecutive bad events, you've already entered into your second set of threes and have two more bad things to endure!). Many things in our Church also occur in threes. Your task, if you decide to accept it, is to identify the following troikas of Catholic doctrine, practice, or history:

1. Name the three Persons of God.
2. Name the three members of the Holy Family.
3. Name the three theological virtues.
4. Name the three holy orders of the Sacrament of Holy Orders.
5. Name the three apostles closest to Jesus, i.e., the only ones who were allowed to accompany Him to the Transfiguration, the Raising of Jairus' Daughter, etc.
6. Name the three Sacraments of Initiation.
7. Name the three archangels mentioned in the Bible.
8. What are the traditional names of the three Magi of the Epiphany?
9. Name the three young men tossed into the furnace by King Nebuchadnezzar in the Book of Daniel.
10. Name the three distinct types of oil consecrated at the Chrism Mass on Holy Thursday.

Features:

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

"There is an ethical problem at the root of our philosophical difficulties; for men are most anxious to find truth, but very reluctant to accept it...In short, finding out truth is not so hard; what is hard is not to run away from the truth once we have found it...The greatest among philosophers are those who do not flinch in the presence of truth, but welcome it with the simple words: yes, amen!" - Etienne Gilson

"We are not led to undo the work of creation or to rectify the Fall. The duty of the Christian is not to leave the world a better place. His duty is to leave this world a better man." - Msgr. Alfred Newman Gilbey

WORD OF THE WEEK

BILLINGSGATE: (n.) Coarsely abusive language (named for the section of London where one was very likely to hear it), as in: "It's hard to describe the state of affairs in society and the Church today without resorting to Billingsgate!"
