From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT JUNE IS THE MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS!

CORPUS CHRISTI

This is the feast of the mystery of the Real Presence of Christ in the sacrament of His Body and Blood. In observing it, we are celebrating nothing less than this: that the only living and true God condescended to become one of His own creatures, and then lowered Himself even further to become their slave, and then degraded Himself even more so to become our food. When we gaze upon the Sacred Host, and fortified with supernatural faith, we are able to perceive with our senses the Master of the Universe and Lord of All. We will observe this great feast today with greatest solemnity, and adore Him with the traditional procession with the Blessed Sacrament here at our parish, starting at 1:30PM. I hope you are able to come (and be sure you keep masked and socially distant when entering and leaving the church for the parade).

THE CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION THAT SAVED ST. LOUIS?

On the day of Corpus Christi, May 25, 1780, a great military force comprising British regulars and warriors from several Indian tribes massed around the new French colony (now under Spanish control) of St. Louis. The 1,600 or so belligerents were poised to strike, but, seeing the townsfolk who left the safety of their walled city and were “frolicking” in the field picking strawberries, they held their ground, not striking until the following day. That would have been the perfect time to strike and pick them off piecemeal. So why didn’t they? The good Catholics of St. Louis were definitely picking strawberries (and flowers, too), but they weren’t “frolicking”. The strawberries were to hand to the priest as he carried the Blessed Sacrament in the procession. It is averred that these Indians knew enough of Catholic practice that they didn’t dare disrupt this great devotion, as the Lord Himself was carried by. When they did attack the next day, the city defended itself very well. The attack was disorganized and the resistance scattered the Indians with cannon fire and pushed back the British. It was the only attempt on the City of St. Louis in the Revolutionary War; the Redcoats stopped coming!

MOST REV. MITCHELL ROZANSKI, ARCHBISHOP OF ST. LOUIS

I’m writing this on Wednesday, June 10, and the word just came out that Archbishop Carlson’s term as our archbishop has come to an end, and that Baltimore native, Bp. Mitchell Rozanski, the former Bishop of Springfield, Mass. will become the 11th bishop (and 10th archbishop) of St. Louis. All I know right now is that he’s 61 years old and his installation as new archbishop is tentatively set for the feast of St. Louis, Aug. 25. Let us welcome him and pray for him! (On a personal note: I guess it had to happen sooner or later, but we finally have an archbishop who’s younger than I am! Makes one feel old...)

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

With the coming of our new archbishop, let’s make this quiz on his predecessors in office who served here in the Archdiocese. See whether or not you can answer these queries:

1. Name the previous ordinaries, i.e., the bishops-in-charge, of our Archdiocese.
2. Several men have served as auxiliary bishops here in the last 50 years; name five.
3. Name the men who served in our Archdiocese who became cardinals.
4. Who was our first archbishop?
5. When did St. Louis become its own diocese?
6. When did St. Louis become an archdiocese?
7. What was Bp. DuBourg’s connection with St. Louis?
8. Which bishop built the Old Cathedral?
9. Which bishop built the New Cathedral?
10. The title “archbishop” has a synonym in canon law; what is it?

ANSWERS: 1. Joseph ROSATI (1826-43), Peter KENRICK (1843-95), John KAIN (1895-1903), John GLENNON (1903-46), Joseph RITTER (1946-67), John CARBERRY (1968-79), John MAY (1980- 92), Justin RIGALI (1994-2003), Raymond BURKE (2004-08), Robert CARLSON (2009-20) 2. Edward BRAXTON, Timothy DOLAN, George GOTTWALD,

Glennon, Ritter, Carberry, Rigali, Burke, Dolan 4. Kenrick 5. 1826 6. 1847 7. He was the bishop of the Diocese of Louisiana and the Two Floridas (I bet you thought there was only one Florida!), which is now New Orleans, and of which St. Louis was a part. DuBourg chose to live in St. Louis instead of New Orleans. 8. Rosati 9. Glennon 10. Metropolitan (coming from "metropolis", i.e., "mother city". An archdiocese is the "mother city" of an ecclesiastical province; in our case, it's the Province of Missouri)
