From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER THAT JULY IS THE MONTH OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD OF JESUS!

GOD BLESS AMERICA

As we celebrate our national holiday this weekend, let us take time to thank God for the blessings we enjoy in this great land. President Reagan, echoing and re-echoing the words of many previous generations of Americans, loved to describe our country as “that shining city on a hill”. America always has been that and continues to be that way, proof of which is the throngs of peoples from all around the world who want to come here to breathe the sweet air of freedom. That fact, all by itself, refutes all those who wish to rewrite and disparage our American history and redefine our great national heritage. God Bless America: that shining city on a hill!

OUR CHOIR

Now that the great feasts are past and the summer is in full swing, the men and ladies of our parish choir are taking a summer siesta. They have served us well this past year, as they had done in all our previous years, and will continue to do so when we welcome their return in the fall. Our thanks, praise, and acclaim to all who provide our parish music! We love you and appreciate you!

HOLY INFANT OF PRAGUE

Many of our devout and eagle-eyed parishioners have noticed the absence of our statue of the Holy Infant of Prague. More to the point, they have all come up to me and asked me, privately, what happened to Him? Well, I should have said something here before now, but it kept slipping my mind. The Infant who had been there is getting a much-needed bath and change of apparel. In His place, I put, temporarily, a likeness of the Holy Infant that I acquired from the Carmelites who staff the gift shop at the church of Our Lady of Victory in Prague, the site of the original statue of the Infant of Prague. (He’s called the “Infant” because He is one, and “of Prague” because that’s where His statue is.) He will return soon, looking, as my grandmother used to say, “like downtown”! Devotion to the Holy Infant is ancient and beautiful, and you’ll find Him in practically every Catholic parish church all throughout the world because it is widely believed that the more Jesus is honored as Infant of Prague, the less your parish will be in debt! (We are not in debt...’nuff said!)

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

"Aim at heaven and you will get the earth thrown in. Aim at the earth, and you will get neither." - C. S. Lewis

"Any country that accepts abortion is not teaching its people to love, but to use any violence to get what it wants." - St. Teresa of Calcutta

(Answering the question: "Do you find abortion to be an acceptable alternative to contraception"): "It is an alternative that I cannot too strongly condemn. Although abortion may be resorted to in order to save the life of the mother, the practice of it merely for the limitation of offspring is dangerous and vicious." - Margaret Sang-er, foundress of "Planned Parenthood"

WORD OF THE WEEK

COQUINATE (v., i.) to serve as a cook, as in: "Many an American will be coquinating at the barbecue pit this weekend!" (And we hope you're all on of them!)
