DIAMOND JUBILEE CELEBRATION

I am looking for pictures that were taken during the 60th Anniversary. If you took pictures at the Mass or at the dinner, it would be greatly appreciated if you would share them with me at my email address brindley@stangelam.org. Thank you in advance for helping us celebrate 60 years as a parish of St. Angela Merici. It was a great night that was had by all and to see a lot of past parishioners and teachers come back to help us along with some of our priests.

Thank you. Linda Brindley

DIAMOND JUBILEE FUND RAISER ON BEHALF OF FOOD FOR THE POOR.

From The Desk of Msgr. Matthew Mitas:

REMEMBER AUGUST IS THE MONTH OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT!

I BET YOU HAVEN'T NOTICED

Some people have come up to me mentioning how much cooler their place in church is and how they can really feel the cool air cascading over them. That's a phenomenon recently applied to our whole church, namely, the replacement of the previous plain and purely utilitarian vents with new, ecclesiastically-proper and harmonious-with-our-parish-church vents. I think they're beautiful and they're part of our 60th diamond jubilee celebration. They were paid for by the Men's Club, for which we thank them greatly!

WEAPONIZING THE ROSARY?

Some idiot writing for Atlantic Magazine (formerly the Atlantic Monthly) recently penned an article in which he tried to form some kind of link between the AR-15 assault rifle and the Catholic rosary. I've read the article a couple of times and I still can't quite determine what his point is, except that he's worried about it. Well, he should be, not so much about the assault rifle, but about the rosary. The Atlantic Monthly used to publish literature produced by the likes of Emerson and Longfellow; now they're stuck with propagating dreck from this dolt. But he's right: the rosary is a weapon, and one that Satan dreads. I believe that much of the evil that saturates our world today, as well as the moral degeneracy that I suspect the author of the Atlantic article endorses, exists because we're not praying the rosary as we should. I can't quite tell whether or not this moron wants both the AR-15 and the rosary to be outlawed, but I wouldn't be surprised if he did. When you pour holy water on a demonically-possessed person, he screams. Maybe the moan wailing from this man's word processor is just the voice of evil being "attacked" by holiness and virtue. Pray the rosary.

GERMANFEST!

We are about to celebrate our fourth St. Angela Merici Germanfest. We started celebrating this in 2018 and, taking a year off for the Wuhan Flu, they have been a great success. We've made decent money, but, more important, the community has had a wonderful experience of fellowship and, well, community. This year's will be just as good and, in many ways, better. I ask you to keep the date open (Sept. 24) and plan to attend with as many people as you can bring along. We'll have all the stuff we've had in the past (including video arcade & inflatables!), which means there will be something for everyone of every age. I ask you now particularly to buy and sell as many of the tickets for the big raffle as you can. (The office has plenty, in case you run out!) Gemueticlichkeit!

MASS AT PIPERS' CHAPEL

The Piper family has invited us back to their home chapel in Cottleville for Mass on the evening of Sept. 15 (feast of Our Lady of Sorrows). The plan is to have Mass there at 5:30 and then head to Bemo's in Cottleville for a fine dinner after. Everybody's welcome, but we need to know how many are coming, so sign up in the lunchroom as soon as you can.

QUIZ-A-CATHOLIC

This week, we celebrate (on Thursday) the feast of the patron saint (and namesake) of our Archdiocese, St. Louis IX of France. His statue, saved from the hands of the "woke" radicals (largely through the efforts of one of our young priests), still stands proudly in front of the Art Museum in Forest Park. Let's see how much about him you know. Identify which title belongs to him. St. Louis was a:

1. king   2. author   3. husband   4. father of 11 children   5. athlete   6. Franciscan
7. founder of the Sorbonne University   8. crusader   9. martyr   10. prisoner of war

ANSWERS: 1. true 2. false 3. true 4. true 5. false 6. true 7. true 8. true 9. false 10. true
